

This Agreement is the contract of deposit which covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning Membership and Business Account(s) offered to you. In this Agreement, the words "you" and "your" mean those who sign the Business section of the Membership Application. The words "we," "us," and "our" mean Infinity Credit Union ("Credit Union"). The word "account" means any one or more accounts you have with the Credit Union.

The classification and form of ownership of your accounts are designated on your Membership Application. By signing the Membership Application, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, and Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule accompanying this Agreement, any account receipt, the Credit Union's Bylaws and policies, and any amendments which collectively govern your Membership and Accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this Agreement, as amended from time to time.

- 1. Membership Eligibility. To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union's field of membership and must satisfy the membership qualifications as required by the Credit Union's Bylaws. You authorize us to check your account, credit and employment history, and obtain a credit report from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request or the Credit Union offers from time to time.
- 2. Business Accounts. An account owned by two or more sole proprietors is a joint business account.
 - a. Rights of Survivorship. If your account is a joint account, the account is owned as a joint account with rights of survivorship unless otherwise stated on the Membership Application. If the account is a joint account with the right of survivorship, upon the death of one of the joint account owners, that person's interest will become the property of the surviving joint account owners.
 - b. Rights of Joint Business Account Owners. Any joint business account owner is authorized and deemed to act for the other owner(s) and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding the account and requests for future services from any other account owner. Each account owner guarantees the signature of the other owners. Any account owner may withdraw all funds in the account, stop payment on items drawn on an account, withdraw, or pledge all or any part of the shares of any account, including funds representing a membership share, without the consent of the other account owner(s) and the Credit Union shall have no duty to notify any other joint account owner(s). If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between account owners or receives inconsistent instructions from them, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate the account, require a Court order to act, or require that all joint account owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.
 - c. Joint Business Account Owner Liability. If any item deposited in a joint business account is returned unpaid or an account is overdrawn, or if we do not receive final payment on any transaction, each of the multiple business account owners is jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item, overdraft, or unpaid amount and any charges, regardless of who created the overdraft, deposited or cashed the item or benefited from the transaction. If any account owner is indebted to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the joint account regardless of who contributed the funds to the joint account.
- 3. Accounts of Businesses and Organizations. Accounts held in the name of a business, organization or association member are subject to the same terms set forth in this Agreement and the following additional rules. The Credit Union reserves the right to require the member to provide a Business Membership Application and an Authorization Designation Form informing the Credit Union who is authorized to act on its behalf and in what capacity with regard to transacting business on all products, now and in the future. You agree to notify the Credit Union of any change in authority. The Credit Union may rely on the written authorization until such time as the Credit Union is informed of changes in writing and has had a reasonable time to act upon such notice. The Credit Union may require that third party checks payable to an organization may not be cashed, but must be deposited to a business account. The Credit Union shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any agent of the account owner, unless the Credit Union has actual notice of any wrongdoing.
- 4. Deposit Requirements. Funds may be deposited to any account in any manner approved by the Credit Union in accordance with the requirements set forth on the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. Deposits made by mail or at night depositories are not our responsibility until we receive them. We reserve the right to refuse or to return any deposit.
 - a. Endorsements. You authorize the Credit Union in its discretion, to accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts if they are made payable to or to the order of one or more account owners, whether or not they are endorsed by all payees. You authorize the Credit Union to supply missing endorsements if the Credit Union chooses to supply such endorsements. If a check, draft or item that is payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to either or both, we may process the check, draft or item as though it is payable to either person. If an insurance, government, or other check or draft requires an endorsement as set forth on the back of the check or draft, we may require endorsement as set forth on the item. Endorsements must be made on the back of the share draft or check within 1 1/2 inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. However, any loss we incur from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you or any prior endorser will be your responsibility.
 - b. Collection of Items. The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an unstaffed facility until the Credit Union actually receives them. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union acts only as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will be liable only for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collections. Items drawn on an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. You waive any notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest regarding items we purchase or receive for credit or collection to your account. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving payor financial institution extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.
 - c. Restrictive Legends. Some checks and drafts contain restrictive legends or similar limitations on the front of the item. Examples of restrictive legends include "two signatures required," "void after 60 days," and "not valid over $500.00." We are not liable for payment of any check or draft contrary to a restrictive legend or other limitation contained in or on the item unless we have specifically agreed in writing to the restriction or limitation.

d. Final Payment. All items or Automated Clearing House ("ACH") transfers credited to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final is not received, we reserve the right to charge your account for the amount of those items or ACH transfers and impose a return charge on your account. After we have received final payment, we refer to these deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect any item, the Credit Union may charge such fee to your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse or to return all or any item or funds transfer. The Credit Union shall have the right to charge back against your account all previously deposited items or other items endorsed by you that are returned to the Credit Union unpaid, regardless of whether the amount of the item has been available for your use.

e. Direct Deposits. The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. You must authorize any direct deposits to your accounts by a separate authorization form. If applicable, you must notify the Credit Union at least thirty (30) days prior to any direct deposit or preauthorized transfer if you wish to cancel or change the direct deposit or direct transfer option. Upon a filing of a bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, you instruct your employer and the Credit Union to make and apply direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law. If your account is overdrawn, you authorize us to deduct the amount your account is overdrawn from any deposit, including deposits of government or benefits.

f. Crediting of Deposits. Deposits made after the deposit cutoff time and deposits made on either holidays or days that are not our business days will be credited to your account on the next business day.

5. Account Access.

a. Authorized Signature. In order to access any account, the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on a Business Membership Application. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature, but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any draft that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you give your account number to a third person, you authorize us to honor transactions initiated by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction. Regarding Dual signature checks, the Credit Union will not be responsible for examining the checks presented for the required authorized drawer signatures and will not be liable for checks lacking the necessary signatures. The business understands the dual signature feature is strictly for the business' internal control procedures.

b. Access Options. You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by the Credit Union (i.e., check, automated teller machines (ATMs), debit card, in person, by mail, automatic transfer, audio response, online banking or telephone). If the Credit Union accepts any draft that is not drawn on a form provided by the Credit Union, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union for handling the draft. The Credit Union may return as unpaid any check that is not drawn in any form provided by the Credit Union. We have the right to review and approve any form of power of attorney and may restrict account withdrawals or transfers. We are under no obligation to honor any power of attorney.

c. Fund Transfers. Except as amended by this Agreement, electronic funds transfers we permit are subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code will be subject to such provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted by the state where the main office of the credit union is located. We may execute certain requests for electronic funds transfers by Fedwire. Fedwire transactions are subject to Federal Reserve Board Regulation J. You order electronic funds transfers to or from your account. We will debit your account for the amount of an electronic funds transfer and will charge your account for any fees related to the transfer. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, we reserve the right to refuse to execute any order to transfer funds to or from your account. We are not obligated to execute any order to transfer funds out of your account if the amount of the requested transfer plus applicable fees exceeds the available funds in your account. We are not liable for errors, delays, interruptions or transmission failures caused by third parties or circumstances beyond our control including mechanical, electronic or failure. We will not provide you with next day notice of ACH, wire transfers and other electronic payments credited to your account.

You will receive notice of such credits on your account statements.

You may contact us to determine whether a payment has been received. If we fail to properly execute a payment order, and such action results in a delay in payment to you, we will pay you dividends or interest for the period of delay as required by applicable law. The dividends or interest paid to you will be based on the lowest nominal dividend or interest rate we were paying on any account during that period. Payment orders we accept will be executed within a reasonable time of receipt but may not necessarily be executed on the date they are received. Cut-off times may apply to the receipt, execution and processing of funds transfers, orders, cancellations, and amendments and, if received after a cut-off time, may be treated as having been received on the next following funds transfer business day. Information about any cut-off times is available upon request. When you initiate a wire transfer, you may identify the recipient and any financial institution by name and by account or identifying number. The credit union and any other financial institutions facilitating the transfer may rely strictly on the account or identifying number even if the number identifies a different person or financial institution. Any account owner may amend or cancel a payment order even if that person did not initiate the order. We may refuse requests to amend or cancel a payment order we believe will expose the credit union to liability or loss. Any request to amend or cancel a payment order we accept will be processed within a reasonable time after it is received. You agree to hold us harmless from and indemnify us for all losses and expenses resulting from any actual or attempted amendment or cancellation of a payment order. We may require you to follow a security procedure to execute a payment order or certain electronic funds transfer transactions. We will notify you of any such security procedures. Unless we permit you to establish a different security procedure, you agree that the security procedures contained in the Credit Union's policies, of which we have notified you, are commercially reasonable verification of orders and other electronic fund transfers. If we permit you to establish a different security procedure, you agree that procedure is a commercially reasonable method of verifying electronic funds transfers.

d. Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

6. Account Rates and Fees. The Credit Union's payment of dividends on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payment and balance requirements as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. You agree the Credit Union may impose fees and charges for the deposit account services provided by the Credit Union. A current Rate and Fee Schedule has been provided to you separately. You agree the Credit Union may change the Rate and Fee Schedule from time to time and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

7. Transaction Limitations.

a. Withdrawal Restrictions. The Credit Union will permit a withdrawal only if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal or have an established overdraft protection plan. Drafts or other transfer or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds may be returned and, if paid, will be subject to a service charge as set forth in the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds in any order at the Credit Union's discretion.

The Credit Union may also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example: any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. If (non-corporate account) a depositor is deceased or (corporate account) the corporation is in bankruptcy proceedings or has been dissolved and required disposition of the account has not been made; someone with authority to do so requests us not to permit the withdrawal; or there are other circumstances which do not permit us to make the withdrawal. We also reserve the right to refuse any withdrawal which is attempted by any method not specifically permitted by us. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. We may require you to give written notice of seven (7) days to sixty (60) days before any intended withdrawals. Although, we are required by law to reserve the right to require seven (7) days advance notice prior to permitting withdrawals, we do not presently exercise this right.

b. Transfer Limitations. For the Business Accounts, you may make up to six (6) preauthorized, automatic, telephonic, internet transfers to another account of yours or to a third party during any calendar month. A preauthorized transfer includes any arrangement with the Credit Union to pay a third party from the member's account upon oral or written orders, including written orders received through the automated clearing house (ACH). If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any statement period, we may reverse or refuse to make the transfer, and your account will be subject to closure by the Credit Union and an excessive withdrawal fee will be charged as stated in the Schedule.

If payment is made directly to the depositor, you may make an unlimited number of withdrawals from these accounts in person, by mail, at an ATM, or by telephone if the withdrawal is mailed to you in a check. There is also no limit on the number of transfers you may make to any loan with us.

8. Certificate Accounts. Any time deposit, term share, share certificate, or certificate of deposit account allowed by state law (Certificate Account), whichever we offer, is subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule and Account Deposit Receipt for each account; the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

9. Overdrafts.

a. overdraft Liability. If on any day, the available funds in your checking account are not sufficient to cover checks and other items posted to your account, those checks and items will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures or an overdraft protection plan you have with us. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's midnight deadline with only one review of the account required. The Credit Union has no duty to notify you of an insufficient funds check. Your account will then be subject to a charge for the item whether paid or returned as set forth in the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the Credit Union, by covering one or any overdraft, does not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time without notice. If the Credit Union pays a draft that would otherwise overdraw your account, you agree to pay the overdraft amount immediately. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor bank extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.

b. Overdraft Protection Plan. If we have approved an overdraft protection plan for your account, we will honor drafts on insufficient funds by transferring funds from another account under this Agreement or a loan account, as you have directed, or as required under the Credit Union's overdraft protection policy. The fee for overdraft transfers, if any, is set forth on the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. This Agreement governs all transfers, except those governed by agreements for loan accounts. Overdrafts will be restricted and governed by those items listed in section 7(b).

c. Dishonored Items. We may redeposit items taken for deposit, cash or other value, or may return the item to you and charge your account. If your account does not contain sufficient funds to reimburse us for the amount of the item, you must repay us for the amount we are unable to collect from your account. If we choose to redeposit an item, we are not required to notify you that the item was returned unpaid. We may charge your account and/or seek recovery directly from you for any item that is returned due to your breach of warranty under the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the state where our main office is located.

10. Checks Presented for Payment in Person. We may refuse to accept any draft drawn on your account that is presented for payment in person. Such refusal shall not constitute a wrongful dishonor of the draft and we shall have no liability for refusing payment. If we agree to cash a check that is presented for payment in person, we may require the presenter to pay a fee. Any applicable check cashing fees are stated in the fee schedule(s) applicable to business accounts.

11. Postdated and Statedated Drafts. You agree not to draw or issue any draft that is postdated. If you do draw or issue a draft that is payable on a future date, we shall have no liability if we pay it before its date. You agree not to deposit drafts, checks, or other items before they are properly payable. We are under no obligation to pay a draft/check drawn on your account that is presented more than six (6) months after the date it was written. If, however, the draft/check is paid, the Credit Union shall have no liability for such payment.

12. Foreign Currency. All drafts drawn on your account shall be payable in currency of the United States of America. You agree not to draw a draft payable in any foreign currency. If you give us an order to pay the draft in foreign currency, the Credit Union shall have the right to return the draft unpaid. If, however, the Credit Union should pay the draft we shall not be responsible for the currency conversion and any fees assessed for collection, and you shall be bound by our determination of the currency conversion rate and the data and manner in which we make the conversion.

13. Stop Payment Orders.

- a. Stop Payment Order Request. You may ask Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon your checking account. You may request a stop payment by telephone, by mail, fax or in person. The stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order and you state the number of the account, date, and number of the check and its exact amount. To be binding the order must be in writing, dated, signed, and must accurately describe the check or draft including the exact account number, check or draft number and the exact amount of the check or draft. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we re-credit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist the Credit Union in legal action taken against the person.
- b. Duration of Order. You may make an oral stop payment order, which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless continued in writing within that time. A written stop order will be effective for 6 months. A written stop order be renewed in writing from to time. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires.
- c. Liability. Fees for stop payment orders are set forth on the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. You may not stop payment on any certified check, cashier's check, teller's check, or any other check, draft or payment guaranteed by us. Although payment of an item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any item holder, including us. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney's fees, damages or claims related to our refusing payment of an item, including of any multiple party account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.
- 14. Lost Item. The Credit Union, in receiving items from you for withdrawal or deposit, acts only as your agent and reserves the right to reverse the credit for any deposited items or to charge your account for the items should they become lost in the collection process.
- 15. Credit Union's Liability for Errors. If the Credit Union does not properly complete a transaction according to this Agreement, the Credit Union will be liable for your losses or damages not to exceed the amount of the transaction, except as otherwise provided by law. The Credit Union will not be liable if: (a) through no fault of the Credit Union, your account does not contain enough money to make the transaction; (b) circumstances beyond the Credit Union's control prevents the transaction; (c) your loss is caused by your negligence or the negligence of another financial institution; or (d) the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim. The Credit Union will not be liable for consequential damages except liability for wrongful dishonor. The Credit Union's actions will constitute the exercise of ordinary care if such actions or non-actions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve Regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and general banking practices followed in the area serviced by the Credit Union. You grant the Credit Union the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Account Agreement. Any conflict between oral representations by you or Credit Union employees and any written form will be resolved by reference to this Agreement and applicable written form.
- 16. Unauthorized Use of Check Writing and Facsimile Signature Equipment. You are responsible for maintaining the security of all facsimile signatures, check writing equipment and supplies. You must promptly notify us in writing of any checks that have been lost or stolen or the unauthorized use of facsimile signature equipment and the circumstances surrounding the loss, theft or unauthorized use. We are not liable for any unauthorized use of such facsimile signature.

- 17. Credit Union Lien and Security Interest. Unless prohibited by law, you pledge and grant as security for all obligations you may have now or in the future, except obligations secured by your principal residence, all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest, if any, in all accounts you have with us now and in the future. If you pledge a specific dollar amount in your account for a loan, we will freeze the funds in your account(s) to the extent of the outstanding balance of the loan or, if greater, the amount of the pledge if the loan is a revolving loan. Otherwise, funds in your pledged account(s) may be withdrawn unless you are in default. Federal or state law, depending upon whether we have a federal or state charter, gives us a lien on all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest, if any, in accounts you have with us now and in the future. Except as limited by state or federal law, the statutory lien gives us right to apply the balance of all your accounts to any obligation on which you are in default. After you are in default, we may exercise our statutory lien rights without further notice to you.

- a. Your pledge and our statutory lien rights will allow us to apply the funds in your account to what you owe when you are in default, except as limited by state or federal law. If we do not apply the funds in your account(s) to satisfy your obligation, we may place an administrative freeze on your account(s) in order to protect our statutory lien rights and may apply the funds in your account(s) to the amount you owe us at a later time. The statutory lien and your pledge do not apply to any Individual Retirement Account or any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. By not enforcing our right to apply funds in your account to your obligations that are in default, we do not waive our right to enforce these rights at a later time.

- 18. Transfer of Account. All accounts are nonassignable and nontransferable to third parties except by us.

- 19. Legal Process. If any legal action, such as a levy, garnishment, or attachment, is brought against your account, the Credit Union may refuse to pay out any money from your account until the dispute is resolved. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses or attorney fees in responding to legal process, such expenses may be charged against your account without prior notice to you, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to the Credit Union's lien and security interest.

- 20. Account Information. Upon your request, the Credit Union will inform you of the name and address of each credit reporting agency from which the Credit Union obtains a credit report in connection with your account. The Credit Union agrees not to disclose information to third parties about your account regarding any transaction or balances except when: (1) it is necessary to complete the transaction; (2) the third party seeks to verify the existence or condition of your account in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act or other applicable laws and regulations; (3) such disclosure is in compliance with the law, government agencies or court orders; or (4) you give us your express permission. We may provide information to credit bureaus about an insolvency, delinquency, late payment or default on your account to include in your credit report.

21. Notices.

- a. Name or Address Changes. It is your responsibility to notify the Credit Union upon a change of address or change of name. The Credit Union is required to attempt to communicate with you only at the most recent address you have provided to the Credit Union. Any change of address notification received from the U.S. Postal Service will be treated as if you notified us. The Credit Union will accept notices of a name or address change and any other notice from you only if provided in writing to the Credit Union. If the Credit Union attempts to locate you, the Credit Union may impose a service fee as set forth on the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule.

b. Notice of Amendments. Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, the terms of this agreement are subject to change at any time. The Credit Union will notify you of any changes in account terms, rates, or fees as required by law. Changes in account ownership, such as adding or removing a joint owner, must be evidenced in writing. No joint owner may remove another joint owner from the account without the consent of all owners. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union's right to enforce any right in the future.

c. Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give to the Credit Union is effective when it is actually received by the Credit Union. Any written notice the Credit Union gives to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your mailing address. Notice to any one account owner is considered notice to all owners of the account.

d. Electronic Notices. If you have agreed to receive notices electronically we may send you notices electronically and discontinue mailing paper notices to you until you notify us that you wish to reinstate receiving paper notices.

22. Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TIN) and Backup Withholding. You agree that we withhold taxes from any dividends or interest earned on your account as required by federal, state or local law or regulations. The notice must specifically describe the transaction, include photocopies or other images of the relevant items, if returned to you and:

- Your account number
- The dollar amount
- Our transaction reference, if any

If timely notice is given, we reserve the right to make a final reasonable determination regarding whether and in what amount any adjustment shall be made. If you fail to receive a periodic statement you agree to notify us within fourteen (14) days of the time you regularly receive a statement.

If we mail you a statement, we will send it to the last known address shown on our records. If you have requested that we send your statement electronically, we will send it to the last e-mail address shown on our records.

23. Statements.

a. Contents. If the Credit Union provides a statement for your account, you will receive a periodic statement of all transactions and activity on your account during the period. If a periodic statement is provided you agree that only one statement is necessary for a multiple party account. For checking accounts, you understand that when paid your original check becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you, but copies will be retained by Credit Union and made available upon your request. You understand your statements and checks are made available to you on the date the statement is mailed to you. This includes: written statements we mail to you or if you have requested an electronic statement, the statement information provided through the home banking service.

b. Examination. You are responsible for examining each statement and reporting any irregularities to the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any forged, altered, or unauthorized item drawn on your account if (1) you fail to notify the Credit Union within thirty three (33) days of the mailing date of the earliest and availability of checks containing any forgery, alteration, or unauthorized signature on the item; or (2) there are any items forged or altered in a manner not detectable by a reasonable person including the authorized use of a facsimile signature machine.

c. Notice to Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or the time limit for notifying us of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes and we will not be liable for any payment made or charge to your account unless you notify us in writing within the above time limit for notifying us of any errors. If you fail to receive a periodic statement you agree to notify us within fourteen (14) days of the time you regularly receive a statement.

24. Inactive Accounts. If your account falls below any applicable minimum balance and you have not made any transactions over a period specified in the Rate and Fee Schedule during which we have been unable to contact you by regular mail, we may classify your account as inactive or dormant. Unless prohibited by applicable law, we may charge a service fee set forth on the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule for processing your inactive account. If we impose a fee, we will notify you, as required by law, at your last known address. You authorize us to transfer funds from another account of yours to cover any service fees, if applicable. To the extent allowed by law, we reserve the right to transfer the account funds to an account payable and to suspend any further account statements. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and we have had no other sufficient contact with you within the period specified by state law, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be reported and remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, we have no further liability to you for such funds and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency. We may close your Business Share/Savings, Business Money Market, Business Share draft/Checking, Business Money Market, Business Share Certificate/Certificate, or other Business deposit accounts if the balance is zero (0) and no activity for at least six (6) consecutive months.

25. Special Account Instructions. You may request that we facilitate certain trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because we do not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific of your trust, will or court-order. If you ask us to follow any instructions that believe might expose us to claims, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to indemnify us or post a bond or provide us with other protection. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by a signed Account Change form and accepted by us.

26. Termination of Account. We may terminate your account without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if: (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the account or of the funds in the account; (4) any share drafts are lost or stolen; (5) there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan; (6) there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts; or (7) responsibly deem it necessary to prevent a loss to us. Credit Union shall have no liability for consequential, punitive, indirect or special damages under any circumstances. Credit Union shall not be liable for circumstances beyond its control, such as fire, flood, and other acts of God, that prevent a transaction from being completed.

5. Issuance of Cards and/or Access Device(s): Card(s) and/or Access Device(s) (together "Access Device(s)") will be used by your employees, agents, or other persons to whom the Access Device(s) are provided (all of whom shall be deemed "Authorized User(s)" under the terms of this Agreement) to initiate withdrawals or transfers from your Company's account(s) via ATMs, through participating VISA® merchants, and other transactions using such Access Device(s). 6. Prior to using any Card, Company shall confirm to Credit Union that Company has received the Card and related Personal Identification Number ("PIN") in the manner stated in the materials that accompany the Card. Company agrees such verification procedures constitute a commercially reasonable means of verifying that the person who is using the Card is authorized to do so on behalf of the Company, whether or not any subsequent transaction made using the Card requires the use of the PIN. Credit Union is authorized to debit the Company's Account for each purchase, cash withdrawal, or other transaction made with the Access Device(s), unless the Credit Union has received a Notice of Cancellation in the manner set forth below and the Credit Union has had a reasonable time to act on such notice. Customer acknowledges that it is responsible for payment of all transactions arising from the use of the Access Device(s).

8. 9. Notice Obligations of the Company: Company shall immediately provide Credit Union with a notice that a Card has been lost, stolen, misplaced, or used without authorization, or that Company wishes to cancel or terminate a Card (any such notice is called "Notice of Cancellation"). Any Notice of Cancellation may be made by calling the Credit Union at the branch locations where the card was issued, but Company shall follow any oral notice with a written notice confirming the oral notice within two (2) business days. Any Notice of Cancellation must refer to the Card number, and a written Notice of Cancellation must be addressed as follows: The Company will use its best efforts to recover and terminate the Card, and to promptly return it to Credit Union. Credit Union will not be obligated to act on any oral or written Notice of Cancellation unless the notice has been delivered to the telephone number or mailing address set forth above, the notice has actually been received by the Credit Union and the Credit Union has had a period of not less than two (2) business days after actual receipt of a Notice of Cancellation to act thereon. Even after a Card has been cancelled, transactions for which Credit Union is responsible under applicable network rules may be posted to the Account.

10. Liability Protection Under VISA®'s Zero Liability Policy: These terms apply only to transactions conducted via the VISA® Network.

Company understands that VISA®'s Zero Liability Policy shall protect it against unauthorized Credit Union transactions that may be made with an Access Device "if" the transaction(s) are processed through the VISA® Network. VISA®'s Zero Liability Policy covers U.S. issued cards only and does not apply to commercial transactions not processed directly via the VISA® Network. If Company suspects any Access Device(s) have been lost or stolen, Company may not be responsible for any unauthorized purchases if Company report the theft promptly. Upon notification from Company of unauthorized Business Debit Card transactions, Credit Union shall limit Company's liability for those transactions to zero. The Credit Union require such notification to be received within 60 calendar days of the mailing date of the first statement showing any unauthorized VISA® Network transaction(s). In evaluating Company's claim, Credit Union shall consider whether gross negligence on Company's part has contributed to the transaction(s) in question. Company may be responsible for a loss if, based on substantial evidence, it is reasonably determined that Company was grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of any Access Devices or account. Credit Union may provide Company with provisional credit for unauthorized VISA® Network transactions within five business days from receipt of notification. Additionally, Credit Union may require written confirmation of the unauthorized VISA® Network transactions before providing any provisional credit.

11. Overdrafts: Company may not overdraw the Account under any circumstances. If the payment of an item does overdraw the Account, Credit Union may charge all or a portion of the item against any deposit account maintained with Credit Union by Company. Company agrees that Credit Union has the right to place an immediate hold on funds in any of Company's deposit accounts to pay for Card transactions which are subsequently presented to Credit Union for payment. If Credit Union pays a Card item which results in an overdraft of the Account, Company agrees to immediately deposit sufficient funds to cure the overdraft.

12. Statements: Each month Company will receive an account statement showing, among other things, all debits made by use of the Access Device(s). Company agrees to promptly review the account statement and notify Credit Union in writing at the address indicated above of any disputes regarding any Card transactions.

13. Disclosures to Others: Credit Union will disclose information to third parties about your account: (1) where it is necessary for completing a transaction; (2) in order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a merchant; (3) in order to comply with a government agency or court order; (4) if you give us written permission; or (5) as otherwise required by applicable law.

14. Lien to Secure Obligations: Company grants Credit Union a consensual security interest in all of its deposit accounts to secure payment of all amounts owing at any time under this Agreement. Company authorizes Credit Union to hold and apply funds in any of its deposit accounts maintained at Credit Union against any present or future indebtedness Company may have to Credit Union.

15. Termination: Credit Union shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to terminate Company's privileges hereunder. All cards shall be canceled effective upon termination of this agreement and Company shall return all cards to Credit Union. Company shall remain liable for all debits or other charges incurred or arising by virtue of the use of the Access Device(s) prior to the termination date.

16. Temporary Holds. To facilitate certain electronic transactions we may place temporary holds on funds in your accounts. These holds may be for periods of 36-hours or more. The Credit Union can neither control the parties with whom you do business nor regulate the processing of transactions through the commercial networks used to facilitate your transactions; Therefore, transactions may be processed after the expiration of any such temporary holds, and it is your obligation to insure that sufficient funds are on deposit at all times to cover the your transactions. In addition, most transaction networks and the rules they operate under allow merchants to obtain approvals for sums greater than the actual amount of the charge that will eventually be debited from your account. Therefore, there may be a temporary freeze against all or a portion of your funds that cannot be used for other transactions, which can result in an overdraft. Both the Credit Union and you are subject to these network transaction rules, which are the standard for the debit card industry. In some instances (e.g., hotels and car rentals) the merchant will obtain authorization for up to three times the expected billing, which can remain against your account for the time periods indicated. Therefore, Credit Union recommends you do not use your debit card when checking in at hotels or renting cars. Note: Using your debit card to settle your bill at departure does not generally subject you to the delayed hold release. You are fully responsible for managing your account in light of these considerations, which are not within the Credit Union's control; and you are responsible for any overdrafts that occur due to such holds imposed via the parties with whom you transact business using the services governed by this Agreement. .

17. General Terms: Credit Union may from time to time amend the terms of this Agreement to the extent allowed by applicable federal and state law, which amendments shall apply to all transactions on your account(s). This Agreement and all services provided under this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Maine. Company agrees that venue for any action brought under this Agreement shall be in the State and county where Credit Union maintains its Principal business offices. If any law or judicial ruling renders any term or condition of this Agreement unenforceable, the remaining terms and conditions shall remain in full force and effect. We reserve the right to waive enforcement of any of the terms set forth in this Agreement regarding any Transaction or series of Transactions. Any such waiver will not affect our right to enforce any of our rights with respect to any owner, user or other applicable person/party; or to enforce any of our rights with respect to other Transactions. Any such waiver shall not modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including any breach of the Agreement, shall be settled by binding arbitration before a single arbitrator in accordance with Nebraska law and the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Credit Union and Company expressly consent to venue and arbitration in Westbrook, Maine. The decision of the arbitrator is final, and there shall be no right of appeal. Any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The fees and costs of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by Credit Union and Company. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney fees and costs.

18. Transaction Limitations and Fees:

Point-of-Sale Transactions – frequency and dollar limitations

- You may make no more than twenty transactions per day
- You may not exceed $2,000.00 in point-of-sale transactions per day

19. ATM Operator/Network Fees – When you use an ATM not owned by the Credit Union, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator or any network used (and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a fund transfer).

20. Additional Charges for Transactions in a Foreign Currency and “Cross-Border” Transactions. Currency Conversion Fee: If you effect or authorize a transaction with your access device in a currency other than US Dollars, VISA® will convert the charge into a US Dollar amount. The VISA® currency conversion procedure includes use of either a government mandated exchange rate, or a wholesale exchange rate selected by VISA® as applicable. The exchange rate VISA® uses will be a rate in effect on the day the transaction is processed. This rate may differ from the rate in effect on the date of the purchase or the date the transaction was posted to your account. A Currency Conversion Fee of up to 1% will be applied to transactions that are converted from foreign currencies to U.S. dollars. Cross-Border Transaction Fee: In addition, VISA® charges us a Cross-Border Assessment up to 1% on each transaction on all cross border transactions regardless of whether there is a currency conversion. For purposes of this Section, “cross-border transaction” shall include both (a) transactions initiated in a foreign country which are subsequently settled in the United States, and (b) transactions initiated in the United States but which are ultimately settled in a country outside of the United States. The Credit Union will assess these fees to you to reimburse it for the fee it is required to pay for each of your transactions subject to these terms. The Cross-Border transaction fee will be shown separately on your periodic billing statement. The Currency Conversion Fee, if it applies to the transaction, will be included in the transaction amount posted on your statement.

21. Inappropriate and/or Gambling Transactions. You warrant and agree that you will not use any Credit Union Accounts or Services, including but not limited to loans, to make or facilitate any illegal transaction(s) as determined by applicable law; and that any such use, including any such authorized use, will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Certain federal and/or state laws such as the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act or Third Party Service Providers' Rules may limit or prohibit certain transactions such as (but not limited to) those coded as possible gambling transactions. The Credit Union may decline to accept, process or pay any transaction that we believe to be illegal or unenforceable (regarding your obligation to pay us or otherwise) under applicable law; or which is otherwise limited or prohibited, including but not limited to any transaction involving or relating to any gambling activity. Such prohibition or limitations may affect some otherwise proper or allowable transactions such as debits, charges or other transactions at or relating to a hotel-casino. You understand and agree such limitations/prohibitions are not within the Credit Union's control and that the Credit Union will not have any liability, responsibility or culpability whatsoever for any such use by you or any authorized user(s); or for declining to accept, process, or pay any such transaction. You further agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any suits, liability, damages or adverse action of any kind that results directly or indirectly from any such use of your account and/or access devices.
